Detailed Action

Status of Claims

1. Claims 5-8, 36-38, 50, and 55 are currently amended. Claims 5-8, 36-38, and 50-59 are currently pending.
2. A Terminal Disclaimer was filed on 5/26/2009 shows application 11/417,680 as commonly owned.
3. Examiner notes the bib data sheet has been updated with the acceptance of foreign priority.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 5-8, 36-38, and 50-59 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

5. The closest prior art that the examiner has been able to locate is Ram et al, U.S. PG-Pub 2003/0004853. Ram provides methods for inquiring about order information, such as amount of shares bought or sold. The method, given in Ram, established a price and a quantity of a security that a user would like to sell or buy, or has previously bought or sold. All past order information would then be displayed with information regarding whether shares were purchased or sold by the user.

While Ram is similar to the instant application in many aspects, there are clear patentable distinctions. Ram does not teach a display in where it is shown whether the orders were buyer or seller-initiated. Ram's method just states whether shares were bought or sold and not who initiated the trade.

The examiner would like to add an additional comment that applicant amended the claims to include a definition of what buyer and seller initiated trades entail. Their narrow definition, coupled with a display, could not be found in prior art.

The following is a formal statement of reasons for allowance:

6. Claims 5, 50, and 55 are allowed because the best prior art of record, Ram, alone or in combination, neither discloses nor fairly suggest the limitations:

c. determining whether each of a user-selected range of trades represented in the transaction information was seller-initiated or buyer-initiated via the computing device, according to both the transaction information and order book information, an open sell order in the order book being bought comprising a buyer-initiated trade and an open buy order in the order book being sold comprising a seller-initiated trade;

d. displaying for each trade of a user-selected security within the user-selected range of transactions represented in said transaction information an indicium representing said price of such trade via an output device associated with the computing device, the indicium having an appearance distinguishing between buyer-initiated and seller-initiated trades;

Claims 6-8, 36-38, and 51-54, and 56-59 are also allowable for the same reason discussed above, in that they are dependent on allowed Claims 5, 50, and 55. As a final matter any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and; to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submission should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
